WILL STUDY CANAL WORKINGS

(Associated Press Cable)
WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 29.—Orders were issued today by the secretary of the navy directing that a portion of the maneuver period of the Atlantic fleet be given over to studying the construction of the Panama canal, together with its strategic advantages.
The annual winter practice is to begin during the coming month. Practically the entire Atlantic fleet will participate. Five days will be spent in the vicinity of Colon.

GARMENTMAKERS TO STRIKE

(Associated Press Cable)
NEW YORK, Dec. 29.—One hundred and fifty thousand men and women employed in the establishments of manufacturers of men's clothing in this and other eastern cities will walk out on strike tomorrow, that being the announcement of leaders of the clothing workers' unions, who have obtained promises of assistance from affiliated unions. They demand higher rates of pay and recognition of the union.

Over-Night Wireless To the Advertiser

Warning the businessmen of the country that hereafter they would not be allowed to make money without giving something in return and asserting that the office of President was one which the man selected to fill had to put on his war paint in order to act worthily, President-elect Wilson spoke from the steps of the Mary Baldwin Seminary, at Staunton, Virginia, this afternoon, within fifty feet of the little church in which his father, the Rev. Joseph R. Wilson, preached more than half a century ago.

Governor Wilson also observed notice on the conservative Democrats in Congress that he would show them no quarter, and there was some guessing as to whether or not he was referring to Speaker Champ Clark and his friends when he said:
"There are some great men likely to be associated with the government of the United States upon whose intelligence it has not dawned what the government of the United States is set up to do."

That President-elect Wilson will not disturb the administration of the insular possessions of the United States until he has studied their needs after assuming office in March next, is the impression of Democrats in Washington closest to Wilson's confidence.

President-elect Wilson spent his fifty-sixth birthday at Staunton today. More than twenty-five thousand Virginians took part in the celebration.

"That brother of mine, John D. Rockefeller, is the most lonesome man in all the world. There is no man who walks that he can call his real friend," said Frank Rockefeller, of Belvedere, today.

"Brother William is worth 500 per cent more money than John D. is. People don't seem to realize this, but it is true," he continued. John D. is fearfully afraid of being kidnapped and held for ransom. He never stirs without his guards.

"Years ago he attempted to stop me from going hunting for fear I would be kidnapped and he would be called upon to pay the ransom. It's a regular mania with him."

Not even the excitement of the presidential election in France can call interest in the proposal, which is ascribed to President-elect Wilson of the United States, for the holding of the great Pan-Republic conference.

Most of the Parisians insist that the conference should be held in France, but many believe that either Switzerland or the United States have prior claims.

According to reports current in New York yachting circles, the recent visit of Sir Thomas Lipton to the United States may lead to a revival of the great international race between sea-going yachts of forty and fifty years ago, when the Cambria and the Sappho were the fleetest sailers afloat.

Sir Thomas is understood to favor an annual international yacht meet under liberal rules between Honolulu and San Francisco. Friends of the Royal Yacht Club say Sir Thomas is ready to offer for continuous competition a magnificent gold cup, as well as an endorsement for the provision of medals for each year's winning skipper and crew.

On the grounds that the applicant was neither a free white person nor a negro, as provided by the Constitution, A. K. Hay Kamar Monunder, a Hindu yogi was debarred in Spokane today from citizenship, by Federal Judge Frank H. Rudkins.

Fifteen of the crew of the Danish steamer Volmer were drowned, when it was wrecked, Thursday, in a great gale which has been raging in the English Channel.

The captain of the Voimer and another survivor were picked up in a state of collapse in an open boat today, fifteen miles southwest of the Lizard Point light.

Miss Violet Asquith arrived in New York today on a brief visit to Ambassador and Mrs. Bryce and other

A Tonic Free from Alcohol

Are you pale, weak, easily tired, and do you lack nerve power? Ask your doctor if Ayer's Sarsaparilla would not be good for you. He knows, and will advise you wisely. Not a drop of alcohol in this medicine. It puts red corpuscles into the blood, gives steady, even power to the nerves; and all without stimulation. Make no mistake. Take only those medicines the best doctors endorse. Ask your own doctor.

In diplomatic circles in London, the conviction is growing that Russia and Japan are drifting into grave complications, as a result of the Mongolian uprising and Chinese hostility to Japan in Manchuria.

The warlike sentiments of the Russians are said to be well known and appreciated facts at Tokyo and the constant menace of the Muscovite is given as one potent reason why Japan has no intention of provoking trouble with the United States.

Kaiser Wilhelm today made no New Year's resolutions.

"All one's life should be a resolution," says the Emperor.

Every one at the palace does not agree with his Imperial Majesty.

Princess Louise, the Kaiser's daughter, has literally pined her sleeping apartments with foolish resolutions.

It is stated that the Chinese are making rapid strides toward becoming a manufacturing nation and have established a government industrial school factory in Wu Chang, across the river from Hankow, where articles of all kinds are turned out, according to a letter received by Captain Robert Dollar from E. K. Howe, the Hankow manager of the Robert Dollar Line.

Peace envoys representing Turkey and the Balkan States resumed their conference in London Saturday. The Turks formally declined the Allies' peace terms and offered the Porte's counter terms. Representatives of the Balkan States asked time for consideration.

The steamship companies operating in the Pacific Coast trade were notified today by the navy department that all bids for the transportation of 20,000 tons of sand from Puget Sound to the Hawaiian Islands, to be used in the construction of the Pearl Harbor drydocks, had been rejected and the government would send the sand to the Islands on the United States collier Nero.

Lars Anderson, the newly-appointed United States ambassador to Japan, arrived in Tokyo Saturday, and will at once take over the duties of the embassy to which he was appointed in succession of Charles Page Bryan.

A remarkable record has been established by French submarines which despite storms, traveled eight hundred miles, submerged all the time, without a single stop. It is considered by the naval authorities, in view of this fact, that a submarine would have the best of the torpedo boat, even though a heavy sea was running.

President-elect Wilson favors a provisional government for the Philippines for three years and independence thereafter, according to Representative William A. Jones, of Virginia, chairman of the house insular affairs committee, who has discussed the Philippine situation with him.

Incidents in court when jury announced verdict in dynamite cases at Indianapolis.

Only two of the defendants, Daniel Buckley of Davenport, Iowa, and Herman G. Seiffert, of Milwaukee, were acquitted.

When the verdict was announced the defendants sat with their faces grim and set.

There was a happy light in Buckley's and Seiffert's faces.

Waichtmeister broke down, crying like a baby.

Judge Anderson dismissed the jury, after thanking them profusely for their "good and faithful work."

Clancy and Tveitmohe heard the verdict stolidly. Tveitmohe's only indication of nervousness was a trick of taking some sheets of paper from his pocket, tearing them to bits slowly and then carefully scattering the bits about the floor.

Defendant Frank K. Painter, of Omaha, sat chattering with his wife when the jury came in. Mrs. Painter fainted when the verdict was announced and was carried from the courtroom.

It is believed the convicted men will be given an opportunity to appeal from the verdict when court reconvenes Monday.

The jurors lost no time in leaving the courtroom after returning their verdict. Seiffert and Buckley wanted to thank the jurors, but they left before they had an opportunity.

The wives and relatives of the prisoners stood about and men, some weeping continually until they shrieked hysterically.

Five minutes after the verdict was out, defendants J. T. Butler, of Indianapolis; Edward Smythe, of Springfield, and Peter J. Smith, of Cleveland, were convulsed with laughter over a joke one of their members had just told.

Some of the men, including Tveitmohe and Clancy, objected to being manacled, but some of the others took the manacling as a joke.

The thirty-eight men walked with their faces flushed and eyes to the front, saying nothing to anyone.
